Amber ESOL — Learner Guide

This guide is for you — the learner. It shows you every screen and every step. The pictures are from the real system.

Reading tip: every section follows the same shape — what the screen is for, how to get there, what you see, and what to press.

Quick reference — the 8 things you'll do most

I want to...	Where to go
Practise English with Amber	Sidebar → AI Tutor → pick a scenario → Begin roleplay

Step by step

1. Type your email address.
2. Type your password.
3. Press the sign-in button.

You will land on your dashboard. If you have not joined yet, you need an invitation link from your organisation — see the next section.

If something goes wrong

- Wrong password — check it carefully; ask your teacher or organisation if you need it reset.
- "Account not enrolled" — your organisation has not set you up for ESOL yet. Contact them.

2. Joining Amber (first time only)

Your organisation sends you a special invitation link. Opening it starts a short, friendly form — about 5 minutes, in five steps (you can see them across the top):

FROM SEED QA ORGANISATION

Welcome to Seed QA Organisation

You have been invited to join an English learning programme. This will only take a few minutes.

- ✓ Your data stays in the UK.
- ✓ Your provider will see your progress, not your private answers.
- ✓ Press Back any time. Nothing saves until you press Continue.

3. Eligibility — one declaration to confirm.

4. ULN — your Unique Learner Number if you know it. You can skip this and add it later.

5. Done — you're in!

Good to know: if you choose Arabic, the whole app flips to right-to-left reading. You can change language later at any time. Nothing saves until you press Continue, and you can press Back at any step.

Your placement assessment

The first time you sign in, Amber asks you 20 short questions to find your level (from Entry 1 to Level 2). It is not a test you can fail — it just helps Amber pick the right conversations for you.

The screenshot shows the AMBER Student Dashboard. The top navigation bar includes the AMBER logo, 'Student > Dashboard', and user information 'TL Test Learner Student'. A left sidebar contains sections: OVERVIEW (Dashboard), LEARNING (AI Tutor, My Goals, Vocabulary, My Sessions), and ACCOUNT (Messages, Profile, Settings). At the bottom of the sidebar is a 'Profile 20%' progress bar labeled 'Complete' and a 'Collapse' button. The main content area displays 'Question 1 of 20' with a progress bar. The question is 'Read the sign: 'NO ENTRY'. What does this mean?'. There are four multiple-choice options: A (You cannot go in), B (Please come in), C (Open the door), and D (Wait here). Option A is highlighted with an orange border.

Read each question and press the answer that feels right. The orange bar at the top shows how far you are. At the end you'll see your level and your first learning goals. Your teacher reviews every placement, so it can be adjusted if it feels wrong.

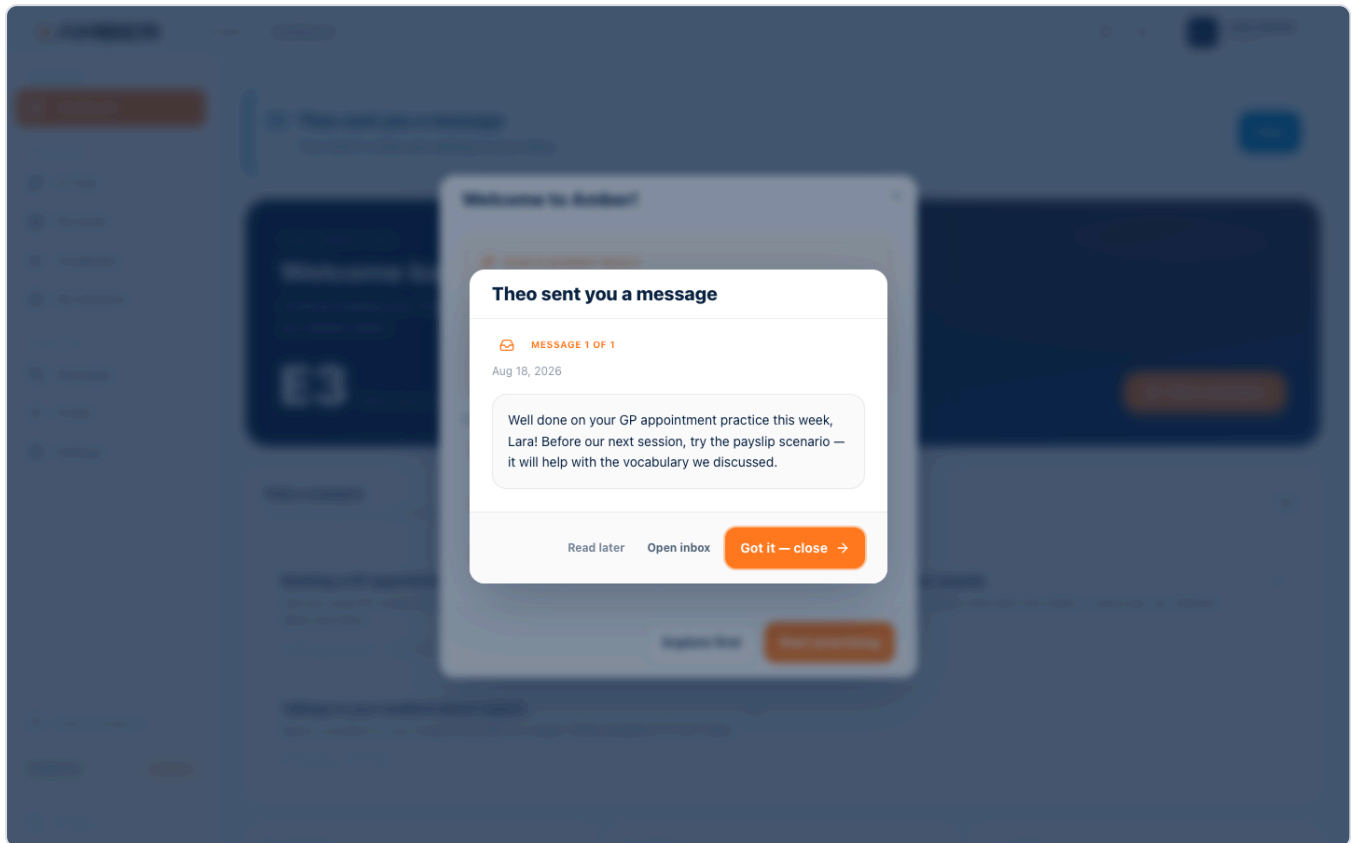

3. Your dashboard

What it's for: your home page — see your level, jump into practice, and catch anything new.

How to get here: you land here after signing in. Sidebar → Dashboard.

If your teacher has written to you

A message from your teacher appears first, before anything else:

- Read it, then press Got it — close.
- Press Open inbox to see all your messages instead.
- Press Read later to close it for now — it stays in Messages.

The welcome card (first visits)

After placement you'll see a welcome card with your level and three tips for starting well:

Press Start practising to go straight to the scenarios, or Explore first to look around.

The dashboard itself

What you see:

- Your level (for example E3) on the big card.
- Pick a scenario — shortcuts into practice.
- Your recent sessions and recent words.
- A banner if you have an unread teacher message.

4. Practising with the AI Tutor

This is the heart of Amber. A practice session has three parts: Prepare (get ready) → Roleplay (the conversation) → Complete (see how you did).

4.1 Choose a scenario

How to get here: Sidebar → AI Tutor.

The screenshot shows the AMBER AI Tutor interface. The top navigation bar includes the AMBER logo, a breadcrumb trail 'Student > AI Tutor', and user information 'Lara Learner Student'. The left sidebar contains sections for 'OVERVIEW' (Dashboard), 'LEARNING' (AI Tutor, My Goals, Vocabulary, My Sessions), and 'ACCOUNT' (Messages, Profile, Settings). The main content area is titled 'AI Tutor scenarios' and includes a description: 'Pick a real-life conversation to practise. Amber plays the other person — a GP receptionist, an employer, a landlord — and gives you feedback at the end. Sessions take 10–20 minutes.' Below this is a 'Your journey' section showing a path of three scenarios: '1 Booking a GP appointment' (GP appointment, 12 min), '2 Understanding your payslip' (Work, 15 min), and '3 Talking to your landlord about repairs' (Housing, 18 min). A dark blue bar indicates 'B1-ready' status, 'CEFR B1 - about 14 weeks at a steady pace'. The 'Pick a scenario' section shows 'UK life conversations matched to your current level' (E3) and displays three scenario cards: 'Booking a GP appointment', 'Understanding your payslip', and 'Talking to your landlord about repairs'. Each card provides a brief description and a duration. At the bottom left, a 'Profile 20%' progress bar is shown with a 'Complete' button.

- Your journey shows your scenarios as a path, ending at your next milestone (for example B1-ready about 14 weeks). Work through them in order — or pick any one you like.
- Pick a scenario below shows the same conversations as cards, all matched to your level.
- Each card shows the topic and about how many minutes it takes.

Press any scenario to continue.

4.2 Prepare

What it's for: see what you will practise before you start — no surprises.

← Back to scenarios

GET READY

Booking a GP appointment

Call your local GP surgery to book a routine appointment. Practise polite questions, dates and times.

📍 GP appointment ⌚ About 12 minutes

What you'll practise

Four steps. Amber guides you through each one.

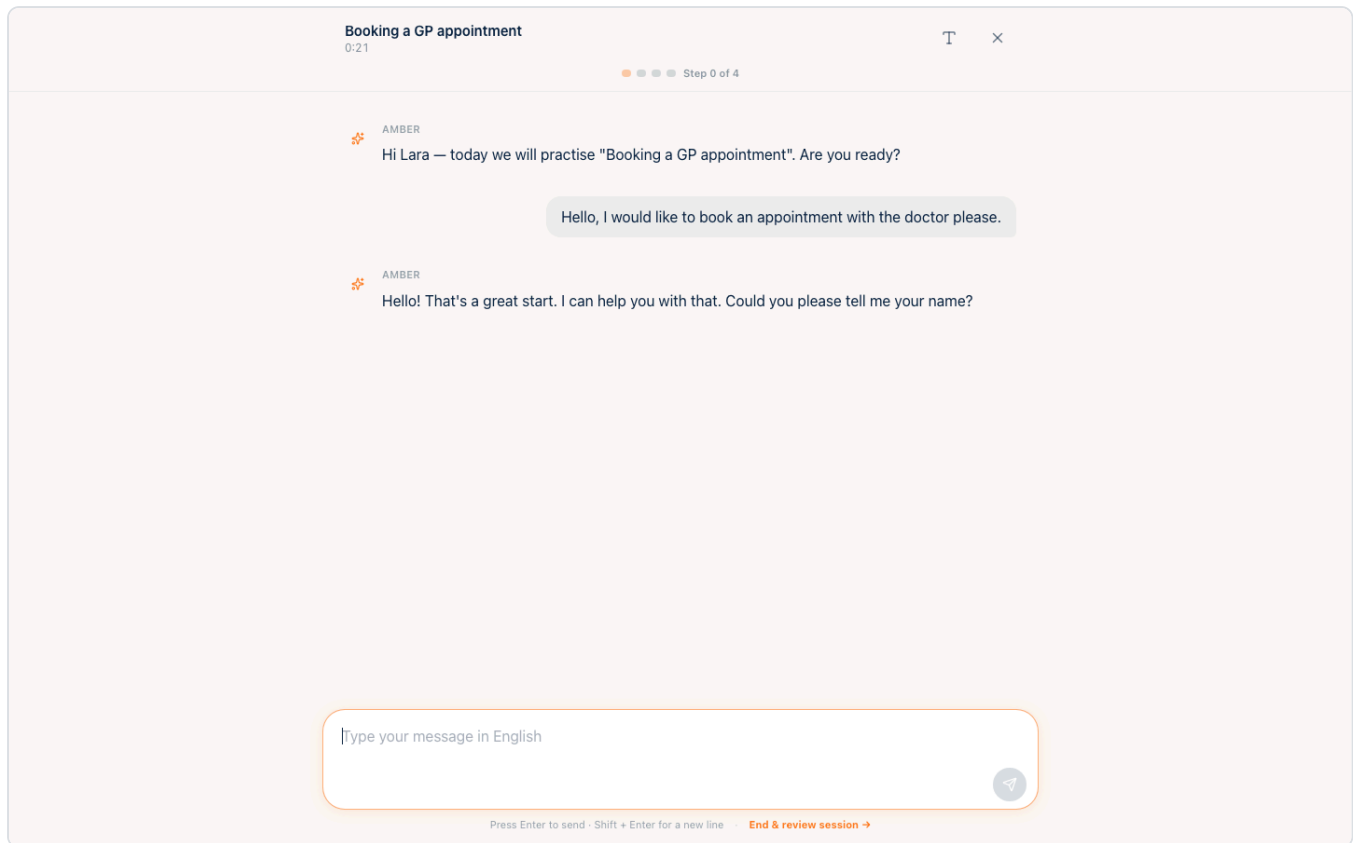

- 1 Greet the receptionist and say why you are calling
- 2 Describe your symptoms and how long you have had them
- 3 Ask about and agree an appointment time
- 4 Give your details and confirm the booking

▶ Begin roleplay

You see the situation, the UK context, roughly how long it takes, and the four steps of the conversation (for example: greet the receptionist → describe your symptoms → agree a time → confirm your details).

Press Begin roleplay when you're ready.

4.3 The conversation

What's on this screen:

- Top: the scenario name and a timer.
- The four dots — your progress through the conversation's four steps. They fill up as you complete each step ("Step 1 of 4").
- The chat — Amber speaks first. Type your reply in the box and press Enter (or the send button).
- T button — makes the text bigger (three sizes).
- X button — leave the session (your progress is saved — see 4.5).

Step by step

1. Read Amber's message.
2. Type your answer in English — the best English you can. Mistakes are welcome; that's how you learn.
3. Press Enter. Amber replies in a few seconds.
4. Keep going — the dots fill as the conversation moves forward.

Good to know

- If you don't understand, say so — write "I don't understand" in English or in your own language. Amber will slow down and use more of your language. This is never a problem.
- If your provider has voice switched on, you'll also see a Listen button under Amber's messages (hear it aloud) and a microphone button (speak instead of typing). Typing always works too.

- After a while, a gentle banner may suggest wrapping up. You can dismiss it and keep going — it never stops you.

4.4 Finishing — your results

End a session in either way:

- finish the conversation naturally, or
- press End & review session → under the message box.

The image shows a session results screen with a light gray background. At the top center is a green circle with a white checkmark. Below it is the text "Great work!". Underneath are two white boxes: "YOUR SCORE" with "90%" in green, and "WORDS YOU HAVE LEARNED" with "0". Below these is an orange box titled "YOUR TUTOR'S NOTE" containing feedback text. At the bottom, there is a question "How did this session feel?" followed by five yellow emoji icons (sad, neutral, happy, very happy, and extremely happy). At the very bottom is an orange button labeled "Finish".

Great work!

YOUR TUTOR'S NOTE

You demonstrated excellent engagement from the outset, confidently initiating a request to book an appointment. We successfully introduced and practised key vocabulary such as 'book an appointment' and 'doctor', which you used naturally. For our next session, I recommend we build on this foundation by focusing on asking for and providing more details when booking, such as preferred times or reasons for the visit.

How did this session feel?

🙄 😐 😊 😄 😍

Finish

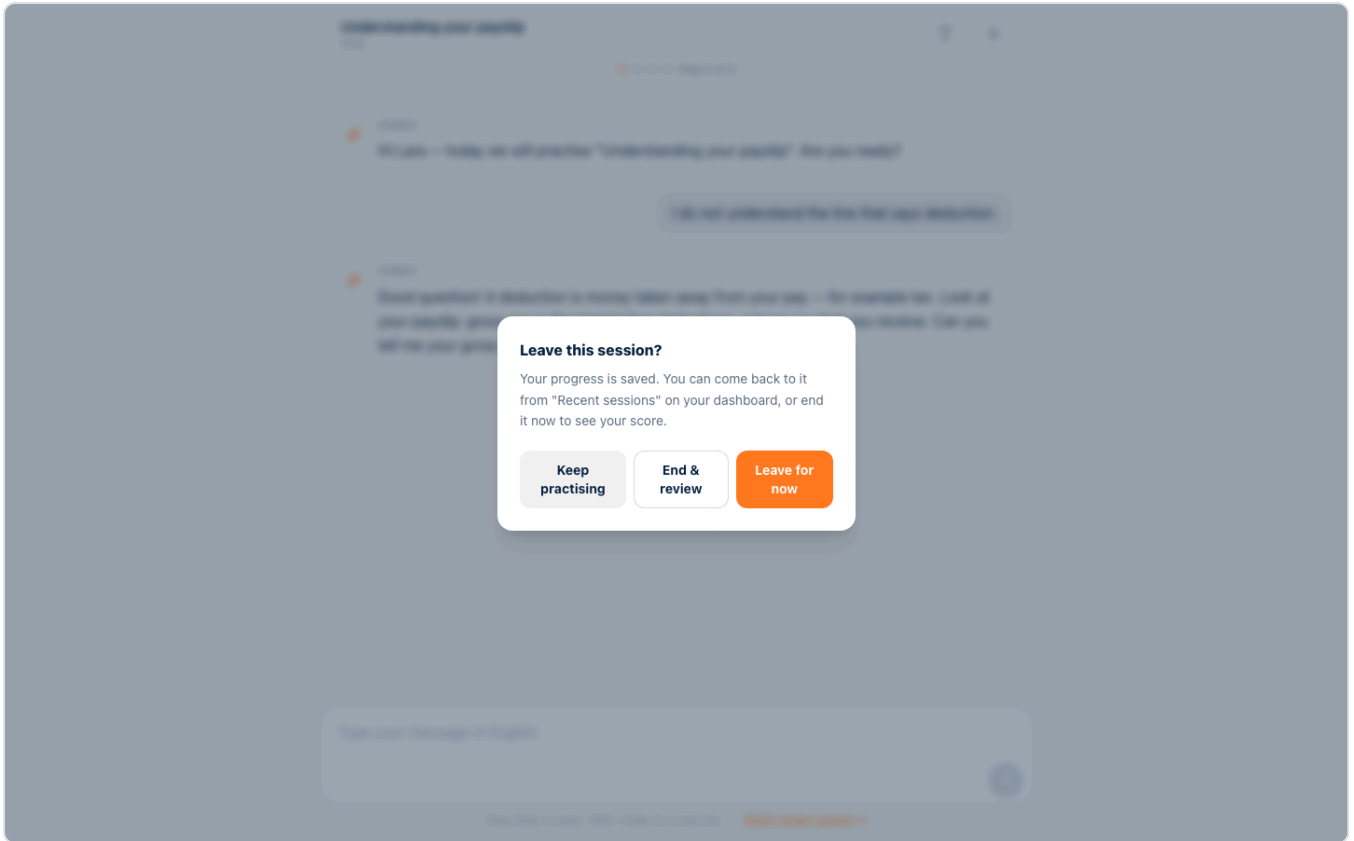

You see:

- Your score for the session.
- Words you have learned.
- Your tutor's note — what you did well and what to practise next.
- The emoji row — tell us how the session felt (one tap).

Press Finish to go back to your dashboard. You'll hear a soft chime — well done!

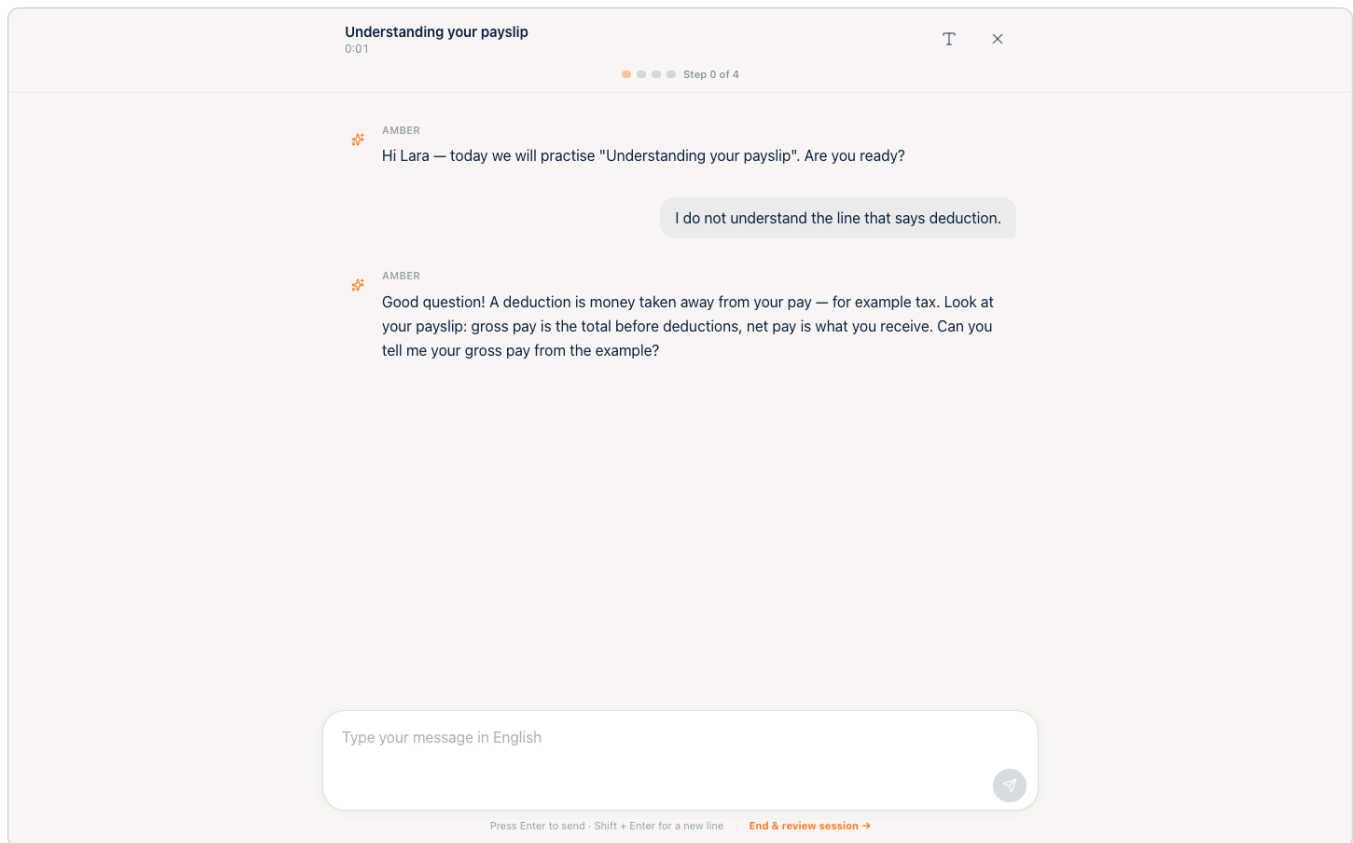

4.5 Leaving early and coming back

Press X during a session and you'll see this:

- Leave for now — closes the session and saves everything. You can come back any time.
- End & review — finishes the session now and shows your score.
- Keep practising — changes nothing; back to the chat.

To come back later: Sidebar → My Sessions → press the session marked In progress. The whole conversation is restored:

If you write about something upsetting

If you tell Amber about something serious — feeling unsafe, being hurt, or feeling very low — the practice pauses and Amber shows you a calm message in your language with real places that can help. A trusted person at your organisation is told, so a human can support you. You are never in trouble for saying how you feel.

You've agreed these goals. Speak to your teacher any time you'd like to change them.

Thanks — your goals are confirmed.

Good to know: agreeing your goals is recorded — it's part of your official learning record. Want to change them later? Speak to your teacher any time.

6. Vocabulary

What it's for: every word you meet in sessions is saved here so you can revisit it.

How to get here: Sidebar → Vocabulary.

The screenshot shows the AMBER Vocabulary interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: Overview (Dashboard, AI Tutor, My Goals, Vocabulary, My Sessions), Account (Messages, Profile, Settings), and Help & Support (Profile 20% Complete, Collapse). The main area is titled 'Your vocabulary' and includes a 'Practise in a session' button. It displays three summary cards: 'TOTAL WORDS 13', 'MASTERED 0', and 'TO PRACTISE 13'. Below these is a search bar and a grid of word cards. Each card shows a word, its source, how many times it's been seen, and the number of entries. At the bottom of each card are 'I know this' and 'Need practice' buttons.

Word	Source	Seen	Entries	Buttons
deposit	Your housing rights · 18 Aug 2026	1x	3	I know this, Need practice

appointment	Booking a GP appointment · 18 Aug 2026	6x	3	I know this, Need practice

What you see:

- Total words • Mastered • To practise at the top.
- One card per word: which scenario it came from, when, and how many times you've seen it.
- I know this / Need practice — tap to tell Amber. Words you keep using well become "learned" automatically too.

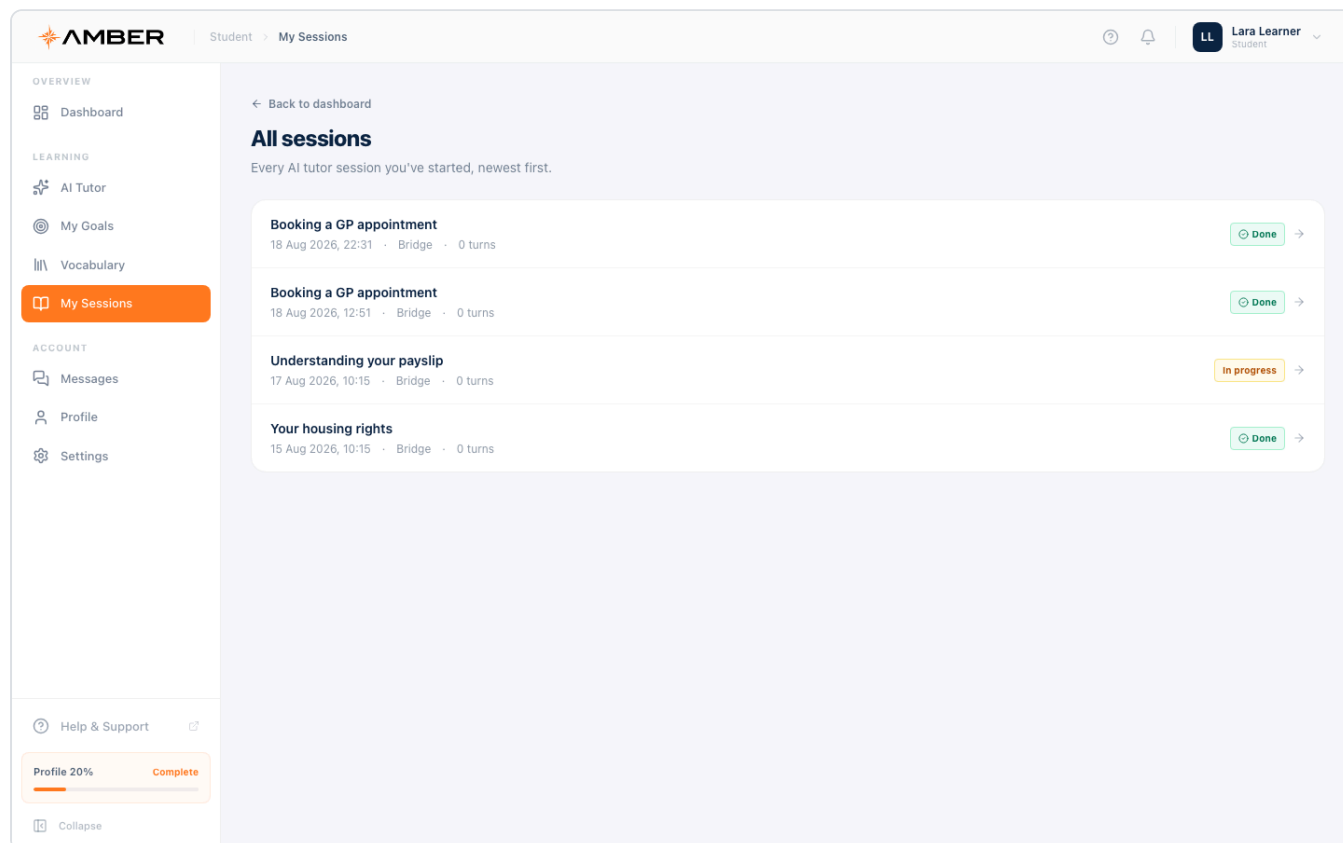

- Search and level filter at the top.

Amber quietly brings your "to practise" words back into future conversations — that's how they stick.

7. My Sessions

What it's for: every session you've ever started, newest first.

How to get here: Sidebar → My Sessions.

- Done — finished sessions. Press one to re-read the whole conversation (you can't type in a finished session).
- In progress — press to continue where you left off.

8. Messages

What it's for: notes from your teacher, in your language.

How to get here: Sidebar → Messages.

New messages also appear as a banner on your dashboard — and Amber makes sure you see them before your next session. When there's nothing new, you'll see "You're all caught up."

9. Your language (and right-to-left)

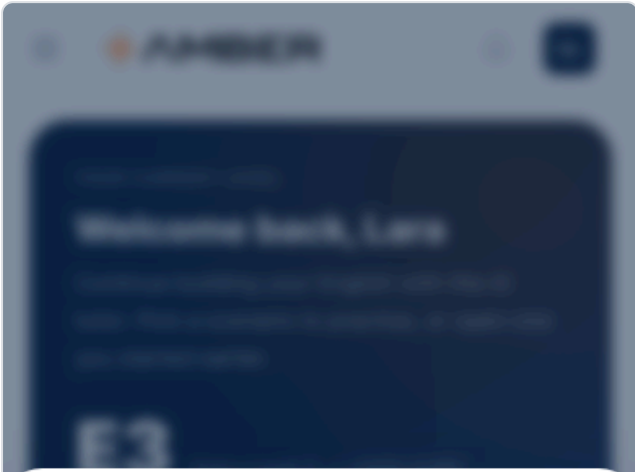

Choose your language when you join — or change it later. If you use Arabic, every screen flips to right-to-left automatically, including the session screen:

10. Amber on your phone

Tip: the text boxes won't zoom your screen when you tap them — type comfortably.

11. If something goes wrong

Problem	What to do
Amber says "Sorry — I didn't quite catch that"	Nothing is broken — just say your message again.
The page won't load	Check your internet, then refresh. Your session is saved.
I closed the app mid-session	Open My Sessions → your session is there marked In progress .
I can't sign in	Ask your teacher or organisation to check your account.
I sent a message by mistake	It's fine — just keep going, or leave the session.

12. Stage 5 — your own assessment

When you finish a level, your teacher starts a review. Part of it is your voice: a short self-assessment where you say how you feel about your progress. You'll see a card on your dashboard when it's your turn — press it and answer honestly. Your teacher and organisation confirm the level together with you.

Words like "placement", "level", and "scenario" are explained in the glossary.
